6:30 PM Pledge of Allegiance

Administrative:

- Selectmen reviewed and initialed and/or signed the following:
- The Selectmen's minutes for Sept 18, 2017
- Bank reconciliations for 8/31/17 for Checking/Sweep account, Andro-gov account and Rapid renewal Acct
- Updated tax-acquired and excise tax spreadsheets
- Revised journal entry 21 and JE 45 for 2017 fund transfers
- Estimate from Power Point for generator repairs. Marc asked Carol to check to see if we have coverage through MMA because our generator problems were caused by lightning
- An e-mail dated Sept 21, 2017, from MMA legal addressing proposed means of recovering costs of ambulance service for the Town
- MSAD 75 notifications of meetings and agendas for September 20th and September 28th

Other Business:

- JR Card said the winter salt order has been confirmed by Morton Salt and will be arriving soon.
- Dana Morgan went over the maps with the Selectmen in an attempt to define the specific lots mentioned in the Town Report articles of 1940, 1947, and 1975, when the Town took action to discontinue certain roads in Bowdoin.
- Marc explained to Dana that the Selectmen will be contacting MMA Legal this week to get their opinion on what effect, if any, the 1965 statutes had on roads that were discontinued or abandoned in 1940. Marc said the Selectmen want to make sure they have all the facts straight before they ask the town to vote on any article pertaining to rights of way on these roads.

Adjournment: 7:30 pm Deb made motion to adjourn, Marc seconded and the meeting adjourned.
