04/24/2023

A true record is recorded:

Present were:

Marc Bernier

Deborah Marquis

Brad Totten

6:23 PM: Pledge of Allegiance

Administrative

Reviewed and signed Minutes for 04/17/2023. The warrant was not signed. Motion to accept by Marc Bernier, second by Deborah Marquis, all in favor.

Other Business:

- Deborah stated that the General Assistance auditor gave a passing report to the Town but the Town does not have a copy of the current General Assistance ordinance, so the auditor gave Deborah a 2022 copy. Deborah will call General Assistance office and see if we need to have a Town meeting for the updated General Assistance Ordinance.
- David Manfredi was appointed as Treasurer, Marc Bernier made the motion, Deborah Marquis second, all in favor. Melanie R. Page swore him in.
- John Lamarca, a licensed trapper and resident of Bowdoinham was in to introduce himself to the Select Board. He takes care of nuisance beavers. His typical charge is $50.00 for an assessment, $35.00 per beaver and $50.00 for each required check every 2 days.
- Karan Stark and David Manfredi will get together to go over the warrants.
- Marc and Brad gave David their phone numbers and e-mail, Deborah had already given him hers.
- The Board discussed that the Treasurer's office should be where Deborah's office is so he will be able to see incoming people.

- Deborah stated that there are 5, 1-hour training sessions left with Trio.
- Karan – there will be treasurer training in October and Lein training in August. Karan asked if a letter had been received yet from the Auditors. The Town would like to include the letter with the tax bill in July along with some other Town information.
- Question was asked who had the Home Depot credit card. Marc Bernier made a motion to cancel all credit cards other than the 1 Town credit card. Karan requested access to credit card statements.
- Deborah stated she would train David on her payroll information.

Adjournment at 7:25 PM Marc Bernier made the motion, Brad Totten second, all in favor.
